"Now that Senator Barack Obama is the presumptive Democratic presidential nominee, I want to share with you my concerns about his vice presidential nominee. Because of the Obama campaign's past and ongoing donations to Rev.

Jeremiah Wright, Barack Obama is no longer fit to be commander-in-chief of our military or commander-in-chief of this great country," wrote AFA's Franklin Graham. "Barack Obama should not be put in a position of guiding our nation's defense or security and diplomacy, especially when his own pastor was openly anti-American." ADVERTISEMENT Graham added that Obama would "only exacerbate the growing disrespect and hatred we have toward America by teaming up with his former pastor." With the addition of Graham as a third endorser, the call for Obama's removal as his running mate now sits on the signatures of at least three prominent Christian leaders. Earlier Monday, Dick Morris, the now-former political analyst for MSNBC, went on Fox News to argue that the Obama campaign should choose instead to replace Biden with Hillary Clinton.
