start so, this game is a simple style game with different bosses in each level. but, i think the game lacks in some areas where the music cuts off for a brief second and then it just comes back on again. i do not know if it is part of the game to be like that, but i do like it to be continuous or i should say, different styles of songs to fit the current level the player is on. this game is a great little time waster and you can play lots of levels
