An ideal resource for anyone involved in eye care: students, optometrists, optometrists and ophthalmologists. This resource provides comprehensive coverage. "We're in a world where vision is critical and vision impairment is increasingly common," says James D. Spangler, President, LensCor, MD. "For this reason, we have decided to create this website for everyone involved in this field." This page is part of the extensive LensCor online network, which includes other resources such as the LensCor Newsletter and LensCor Problem Solving.
